GOD WILL STAND

“if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land.” (2 Chron. 7:14)

“in hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before times eternal; (Titus 1:2)

A lot of promises are made in this world that are not honored. How many times have you seen couples stand before an official in a marriage ceremony and promise to “love and cherish until death do us part” and in a few years, some even months, are getting a divorce.

One of the things that draw people to God is the fact that He has always, and will always do what He says. There is a book full of His promises and then keeping them, and we know he cannot lie. If he says it, it is always true.

Some are more willing to trust in what they can see and touch than they are to trust in an infallible and all-powerful God. Such will live to regret those decisions.

The promise he made to Solomon in the passage above, He performed again and again and again with His people. It appears that human being are rather fickle. They make promises and then they break them. So it has always been.

But God’s promise then is still the same, if we will “pray, and seek His face, and turn from our wicked ways, he will forgive and heal.

What a promise!
