THE FACE OF GOD

A while back I watched the movie, 7 days in Utopia. It was a nice little movie, that sucks people in by pretending it is a movie about golf. Well, it is about golf, much of it, but underneath the the aura of golf there is a subtle message about God. It isn’t really about His word, or anything solid about Him, it just toys with the idea.

The most unique ending I ever saw on a movie, you have to go to the Internet to find out the ending, and even that is not spoken plainly, it too is subtle.

During the movie in one scene, the old man put his hand over the young golfer’s face and said, “You can see the face of God.” Well, of course he was not right. “No man hath seen God at anytime.” (1 John 4:12) Of course he could not see the face of God, it was a ploy to get him to concentrate on something besides himself.

Although we cannot see God, or his face, there are many ways we see God. In the birth of a child, in the majestic mountains of the world, in the forests, plains and the beauty of the flowers that grow, a baby taking its first steps, and the myriad of other things we see.

How can anyone, of reasonable intelligence, see all these things and say “there is no God.” David said a person that says that is a fool. (Psalm 14:1)
