‘THINGS TOO WONDERFUL’

“Therefore have I uttered that which I understood not, Things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.” (Job 42:3) Most of us are familiar to some extent, with Job. Fewer of us understand little of what he was about.

The expression quoted above and the title of this article, got me to thinking of all the things “too wonderful” for us to understand. But we can still enjoy them.

How many times have you thought of those wonderful things. Too many of them for us to discuss individually here but the mention of some of them might get us to thinking.

Who can explain the loyalty and love of true friend, yet we enjoy them thoroughly. To explain what makes them is beyond our comprehension. David said, “…there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.” (Psalm 18:24) how many of us have enjoyed that kind of friendship over years and haven’t properly thanked them and God?

And then there is the love of a child, that is absolutely “too wonderful” for us to understand. What great pleasure and joy we get when children we raised are attentive and loving, sometimes beyond what we expected. A child that will take care of a parent when they cannot take care of themselves, is something wonderful to see. Or the love of a sibling that will offer parts of their bodies to save your life. Who can fathom the depths of such a wonder.

Many other things we could mention, God’s immense expansion over us, the beauty of the terrain on which we live, the seasons, the way the earth produces. We could go on and on but you get the idea.
